National Surveyors Week was proclaimed nationally by Ronald Reagan, 40th President of the United States of America, on February 13, 1984. National Surveyors Week recognizes the importance of land surveyors in shaping our knowledge of where we are and what we have, which are the foundation of determining where we want to go and what we want to build.

At G4, our bottom-line is dependent on the fine work that Surveyors perform on a daily basis, and for that we thank you.
